DRAFTS MUST KEEP ORDER GOING TO WAR TRAINING CAMPS.

Numerous cases of disorder on the part of draftees enroute to mobilization points have been reported to the War Department. As a result of the complaints Major Henry Rhodes notified all local boards that immediate steps must be taken to have full reports made to commanding officers on the conduct of draftees of each cantonments. Particular attention will be paid to violations requiring arm bands, which now constitute the uniform of the draftees.

BASEBALL LINGO TO BE TRANSLATED FOR FOREIGN FANS

The popularity of baseball among the allied nations is spreading so rapidly that there is already a demand for simple instructions and rules of the game, printed in foreign languages. To meet these requirements several expert baseball authorities are collaborating in the preparation of a baseball primer, which will be distributed in various sections of Europe.

The pamphlet, which will be printed in French, Italian, English and Spanish, will carry the rules of the game in the simplest form. In addition, there will be pages of explanations and answers to the questions which arise among those who are playing their first contests. These questions and answers will be printed in both English and various foreign languages in parallel columns in order that when American and foreign players or spectators meet, without being able to speak the language of their opponents or neighbors in the stand, there may be a medium of communication at hand. A glossary of technical and baseball terms in all languages is also to be appended.

SPANISH INFLUENZA—HOW IT IS SPREAD.

Influenza is always spread from person to person, the germ being carried with the air along with the very small droplets of mucus, expelled by coughing or sneezing, forceful talking, and the like by one who already has the germs of the disease. They may also be carried about in the air in the form of dust coming from dried mucus, from coughing and sneezing or from careless persons who spit on the floor and on the sidewalk. As in most other catching diseases, a person who has only a mild attack of the disease himself may give a very severe attack to others.

Where crowding is unavoidable, as in street cars, care should be taken to keep the face so turned as not to inhale directly the air breathed out by another person.

SINCERE GRATITUDE

Mrs. William Bell, Logansport, Ind., writes: "I deem it my duty to express my gratitude for the good Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy did me when I had a severe attack of diarrhoea three years ago. It was the only medicine that relieved me." (adv-act)

ADVOCATES ARMY OF OCCUPATION IN GERMANY.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Allied occupation of Germany for at least three or four years is essential condition of any beginning of permanent peace, according to Stephanie Lauzanne, member of the French High Commission in the United States. "The only way to cure the German people is to permit them to have a taste of military occupation in their own country," he said.

WHEN HEROES MEET.

An American soldier wearing three American decorations and the ribbon of the French croix de guerre was walking down a street in Paris, France. Suddenly a French sergeant, sitting in front of a cafe, rushed up. He, too, had decorations, the medal militaire, several citations and the fourragere, the braid worn by men whose entire regiment had been decorated. The Frenchman had recognized the American as one of the heroes of the advance in the St. Michel salient. They had fought side by side. Neither could speak the other's language. So they stood there, under the eyes of an admiring crowd, smiling at each other and shaking hands like long lost brothers.

GERMAN PAPERS CONTINUE LAMBASTING "CHIEF CULPRITS."

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 24.—German provincial and Socialist newspapers continue their campaign against the "chief culprits" responsible for the war. The Frankische Tagespost, of Nuremberg, the first paper in Germany to demand openly the abdication of the Emperor, declares that the accusation of the Crown Prince entirely is out of the question.

"The German people are searching for the guilty," says the Volks Zeitung, the organ of the Nuremberg Socialists. "The Pan-Germans and Junkers are silent to-day, but we do not forget that they are the great war inciters in Germany, that they remain the support of social and political reaction and that they are a menace to the future healthful development of the German empire. The Pan-German policy has gone bankrupt, but unfortunately it has led the German people to disaster. To the gallows with the guilty, whoever they may be!"

The Socialist Arbeiter Zeitung, of Vienna, urges the German Socialists to punish the "chief culprits" without mercy, adding:

"When the German soldiers return home from the trenches, after four years of unparalleled sufferings, there will be a reckoning for the people who have led them to this catastrophe. The German people will sweep away the Junkers and take its own destiny into its own hands."

FRENCH CAPITAL IN HOLIDAY ATTIRE.

PARIS, October 24.—Paris was a riot of color and jubilation Saturday in celebration of the unbroken series of allied victories.

Allied flags fluttered everywhere, the Star-Spangled Banner being conspicuously represented in the decorative scheme.

More than a thousand captured guns are lined up on the Place de la Concorde and a big throng viewed them. An inflated German balloon is the object of great curiosity in the Tuileries Gardens, and near-by is the wreck of a Zeppelin.

For the first time since the Germans started their air raids on Paris white lights were allowed to burn in the capital Saturday. The Place de la Concorde was brilliantly illuminated, and recalls the gay times of peace.

Wire From Ounce of Platinum. Platinum is so ductile that a wire 1,800 miles long could be drawn from a single Troy ounce of the metal.

It is almost as difficult for some women to get their hats on in the evening as it is for the men to get theirs on in the morning.

ALABAMA FIRST TO CAPTURE HUNS

Chaplain Tells of Exploits of Rainbow Division.

STRIKE TERROR TO ENEMY

American Boys Refuse to Give Inch to Savage Hordes of Beast of Berlin—Untold Cruelties Left in Wake of Barbarians Would Shame the Old-Time American Redskins—Yanks Are Bravest of Soldiers.

Letters received here from officers and men of the Rainbow division, who were under canvas on the Hempstead Plains, L. I., before being sent to France have created intense enthusiasm when read to the scores soon to leave for foreign service.

Chaplain Emmet P. Smith of the 167th Alabama infantry, writes that he was the first man in the Rainbow division to draw the enemy fire.

"We had just moved up over the front," says Chaplain Smith, "when the first bomb fell in our camp thrown by an enemy airplane. It fell about 100 feet from where I was standing, throwing mud, pebbles and pieces of shrapnel all about me, causing me to spill my cupful of hot coffee on my uniform and to beat a hasty retreat to a place of safety.

"I am glad to tell you that the Rainbow boys are making great history over here in France. We are all in good spirits and full of 'pep' and ready to go over at all times. Plenty of wholesome food for every man, good, comfortable clothing and first-class equipment. We could not ask for anything better, unless it is another million men from the states to help us administer the knockout blow to the kaiser and his barbarians.

Carry Terror to Hun. Our outfit carried terror to the heart of the Hun on more than one occasion, and our boys took possession of No Man's Land the first day.

"Alabama captured the first prisoners unaided by the French that any American outfit pulled off, receiving the unstinted praise of the French and American officers. Quite a number of our boys wear war medals. We hope to meet again the many residents of Long Island towns who did so much to show their wholehearted hospitality to us at Camp Mills. We hope to meet them again as men who did our best to make the world free from the domination of the unspeakable Hun.

"By the way, every German sympathizer in America ought to see what untold cruelties the Hun has left behind him. He made war on old men and helpless women and outraged tender girls and mutilated little boys. The true story of the Hun and his brutality can never be told, for many things I have seen are too horrible for the mind of a civilized person to believe. We must win this war or the world will be a hell and a slave market for German war lords to terrorize.

Bravest of the Brave. "Let the good people in the states stand by us. Send men, guns, airplanes by the thousands and thus bring the war to a speedy and definite ending and save civilization from being destroyed by modern barbarians, whose 'kultur' is terrorism and whose method of warfare would shame the old-time American redskins.

"Our American boys refuse to give an inch to the Hun. No braver men ever followed a flag than men of America in France. The New York regiment, the old Sixty-ninth, are good fighters, and they are facing the enemy like heroes. Father Duffy, the chaplain of the Sixty-ninth, is every inch a man and a soldier and the regiment is fortunate in having such a good man as chaplain. Best wishes. Your friend. E. P. SMITH.

"Chaplain 167th Infantry." Chaplain Smith resigned his pastorate to go with the famous Alabama regiment selected for the Rainbow division. He is one of the most noted of scholarly clergymen in the Southland.

LIKE FRENCH BEDS

American Soldiers Find Them Crude but Comfortable.

Go where you may behind the allied lines in France, one style of bed predominates. It is crude, but comfortable, and very popular among the troops.

The bed measures about six feet long by two and one-half feet wide. The framework is made of any material that happens to be available and the support is wire netting or sandbags securely nailed. The legs stand about 18 inches from the floor. Where the men obtain the material for their beds is a mystery.

In the trenches, of course, no beds are to be had. A waterproof sheet and a single blanket usually suffice. In the trench dugouts officers have straw to sleep on, the utmost comfort they can expect. Men on leave from the trenches say that for the first few nights they are unable to sleep between sheets on a soft spring bed.

Friends Steal His Savings.

John Smaller, a Slav of Pittsburgh, trusted two men of his own race with $800 while he hid a box filled with "securities" waiting for them to return. After an hour passed he opened the box to find it filled with old papers.
